

I consider the Indiana "no call list" the most significant consumer protection legislation ever enacted. To allow certain parties to (Bank Corporations) to buy, excuse me , to be allowed exemption would open a door that could not be closed. It would be an injustice to the people you serve to voice otherwise. Any ruling but to uphold the current situation would be very transparent. The FCC is a protective agency. Protect somebody!